

Join us for a Hoppin' Good Time at the Angier Public Library Community Easter Egg Hunt and Spring Carnival, Saturday, March 27, 2010

The Easter Bunny hops in to downtown on Saturday, March 27th from 3:00pm to 5:00pm bringing 6,000 candy and toy filled eggs.

The event will take place at the Jack Marley Park. Children ages 5 and younger will hunt for eggs at the multi-purpose field.

Children older than age 5 will enjoy hunting for eggs at the playground area closest to volleyball court.

The hunt will begin promptly at 3:00.

If you are a parent with children in both age groups, feel free to hunt for eggs where you feel it is most appropriate for your children.

Parents are strongly encouraged to let their young children hunt for eggs on their own as this makes the adventure more fun for the little ones and fair to all the children involved in the event. Children up to 12 years old are welcome.

There will be games, a bounce house, a giant slide and a train for the children to enjoy. These will be on the multi-purpose field.

Hop on over and have your picture taken with the Easter Bunny for only $2.00.

The Angier Friends of the Library will be selling concessions at this event.

The Jack Marley Park located at 245 East Williams St. Angier N.C. 27501.

For more information please contact the Angier Public Library 919-639-4413.

The Angier Public Library, and the Angier Friends of the Library, sponsors the Easter Egg Hunt and Spring Carnival.