

Police Officer-Angier, Population 4,219 seeks police officer to perform general law enforcement duties to include, but not limited to: investigating traffic accidents; answering calls for service and complaints; protecting life and property; enforcing traffic, other laws, and ordinances; preventing and investigating criminal activity; testifying in court; performing related work as required; writing detailed and factual reports. Prior law enforcement experience preferred but not required; completion of high school/GED; NC BLET certification; possession of valid NC drivers' license; willingness to work rotating shifts; have basic computer skills; clean criminal history, good moral character; submit to psychological testing; drug testing, and a thorough background investigation. A strong emphasis is placed on the philosophy of community policing and excellent customer service skills. Salary, $31,000 annually or higher DOE; excellent town paid benefits include medical, dental, vision, 401K 5% contribution, and paid holidays. CLOSING DATE: Open until filled; No phone calls please. Submit Town of Angier application which may be downloaded from www.angier.org or an application may be picked up at Angier Town Hall, 55 N. Broad Street West, Angier, NC EOE